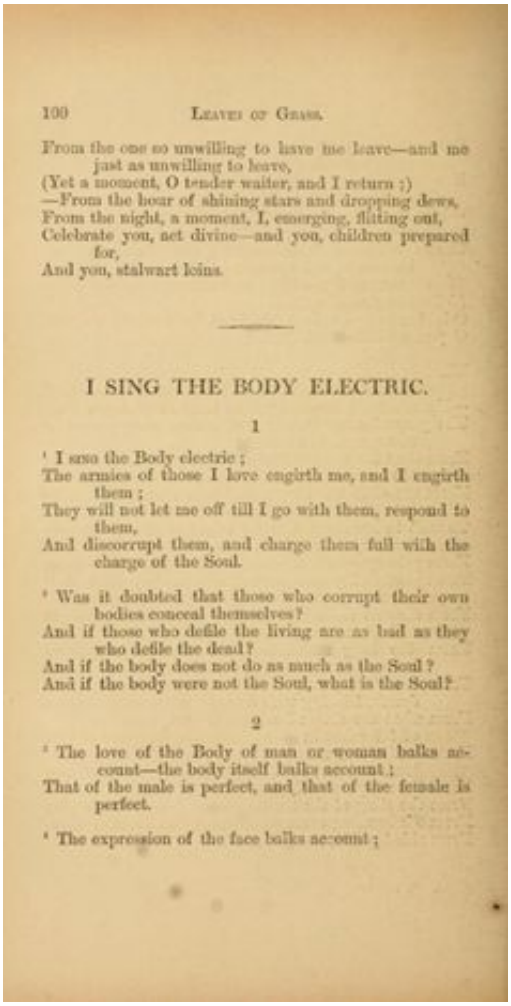
The Poem In Patch Adams By Walt Whitman Download



100 LEAVES OF GRASS.

From the one so unwilling to have me leave—and me
just as unwilling to leave, (Yet a moment, O tender waiter, and I return ;)
—From the hour of shining stars and dropping dews,
From the night, a moment, I, emerging, flitting out,
Celebrate you, act divine—and you, children prepared for,
And you, stalwart loins.

I SING THE BODY ELECTRIC.

I sing the Body electric ;
The armies of those I love engirth me, and I engirth
them ;
They will not let me off till I go with them, respond to
them,
And discorrupt them, and charge them full with the charge of the Soul.

Was it doubted that those who corrupt their own bodies conceal themselves?
And if those who defile the living are as bad as they who defile the dead?
And if the body does not do as much as the Soul?
And if the body were not the Soul, what is the Soul?

2

The love of the Body of man or woman balks account—the body itself balks account ;
That of the male is perfect, and that of the female is perfect.

The expression of the face balks account ;
